Attach a condition and it becomes a trade.

If you do well. If you are good. Children smell that first. Once you start weighing who deserves it, a line forms, and a line has a bottom.

Some things go to people we will never see again. Some go without a name attached. There are places where the arithmetic does not work and people keep going anyway.

Book two. The first was about receiving. This one is about what passes through.

GOES FIRST · NEVER ASKS · DOES NOT STOP

The One Who Never Asked

Going where nothing comes back

FROM ME — TO SOMEONE UNKNOWN

it goes even with no one at the end

Jaehyuk Choi