
TEEN EDITION OF WHY IS THIS STILL HERE?

Everyone had one last year. Who has one now?

There is no date it ended. Nobody voted to stop. At some point everyone just wasn't doing it anymore.

But some things in that same room have been there for years. Nobody calls them a trend and everybody keeps using them. Those are two different things.

Three clocks and four bridges, across sixteen chapters. And a last chapter about why this is a game you can start late.
